Do you have your 2025 Trail Pass?

Buy your 2025 State Recreational Trail Pass through Brown County Parks, Purchase Now. Buying your pass locally means more of the fee stays in Brown County.

NOTICE

Please note that the dates listed below are subject to change due to any unexpected weather delays.

Fox River State Recreational Trail Repaving

Phase 1 will close the trail section from Heritage Rd. (CR-X) to William St. in De Pere. This trail will be closed on Monday, May 5 and will open back up at the end of the day Friday, May 9, 2025.

There will be other construction activities that will be happening to this section of trail, but the trail will not be fully closed. It is recommended to use other sections of the trail until construction is complete. This section will be under construction from May 5 - May 22, 2025.

Phase 2 will close the trail section from Portier Pier in the City of Green Bay to Lazzarre Ave. in Allouez. The trail will be closed from Monday, June 9 to Friday, June 13, 2025.

Again, there are other construction activities that will be happening to this section of trail but will not be fully closed. It is recommended to use other sections of the trail until construction is complete. This section will be under construction from June 9 - July 2, 2025.

Phase 3 will close the trail section from Lazzarre Ave. in Allouez to William St. in De Pere. The trail will be closed from Monday, June 16 to Friday, June 20, 2025.

Again, there are other construction activities that will be happening to this section of trail but will not be fully closed. It is recommended to use other sections of the trail until construction is complete. This section will be under construction from June 13 - July 9, 2025.

Escape the Crowd: Midway Road's Secret Trail Access

The Midway Road trailhead offers 11 paved parking spaces for Fox River Trail adventurers looking to escape the more frequented sections. With ample space for vehicles and easy access to the path, this strategic starting point allows visitors to quickly immerse themselves in the trail's less crowded stretches. The good news is that it is open year-round.
