NEW

Our quarterly meetings are moving to the second floor of the Mulva Cultural Center at 221 S. Broadway in De Pere.

Our next meeting is Thursday, April 23 from 6-8 pm.

SAVE THE DATE

We are cohosting with WI PBS a documentary about how the WI railroad rails became our beloved trails, with a panel discussion afterwards. This is a free event open to everyone.

Join us on Thursday, April 9, from 6:30-8:30 pm at the Mulva Cultural Center at 221 S. Broadway in De Pere.

Get your 2026 trail pass early by purchasing it online here or at a participating store.

Did you notice how cold January was? It brought more snow and frigid weather than we've seen in recent winters here in Green Bay. Even so, it's been hard not to notice a few die-hards still out on the trail. Maybe you're one of those devoted Fox River Trail users for whom neither snow nor cold is a deterrent. For those who have been missing the trail because winter weather has kept you indoors, we have the perfect event for you—our second annual Rally for Spring. This year, we'll have the same great raffles, trail passes for sale (and we won't run out this time!), and—new this year—a food truck in the parking lot. We hope you'll join us. We won't have a cover charge for this event.

Rally for Spring

Thursday, February 12

Cycling Brews, 1109 Honey Court, De Pere
5:00 – 8:00 pm

Birrieria Xolo Tijuana food truck (in the parking lot)

Do you love taking pictures? Do you already have a collection of photos—especially of the Fox River Trail? We'd love for you to share them with us. We're working on a photo contest that we plan to launch this spring, but don't worry if the "contest" part isn't your thing. You're still welcome to submit your photos to help showcase the beauty of the trail and the fun that can be had along the way. Look for more details in our March newsletter.

February 14th is Valentine's Day. Show the Fox River Trail some love by making a donation.
